NOTICE!!

On 7th or 8th inst. two horses were taken from this farm, and supposed to have been taken to some of the lower counties, or somewhere near Raleigh. One an old mare of medium hight and size, badly foaled, with a swollen left hind foot, stiff movement and about only in front. The other a young dark bay gelding sore back, white spot in forehead, small and quite thin.

A reward of Twenty-five dollars will be given by the undersigned, for the return of the above described Horses, and Twenty-five additional for the apprehension of the thief.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1870.

THE INQUISITION AGAIN.

The Holden inquisition is still going on at the Capitol. Its secret sessions are held at night. The last account we had of it came through J. T. Fogleman, of Alamance, who, with some half dozen others, were summoned by the Marshal of the Supreme Court to appear before Judge Pearson, to testify against the Ku Klux. The Marshal was accompanied by Ball (John Ball the fatty) and a few of "Kirk's lambs."

We see no use for the services of Ball or "the lambs," except to increase the cost and to give idle Leaguers an opportunity of turning an "honest" penny by claiming mileage.

Mr. Fogleman was notified to appear on Monday night at the Capitol. He did so and instead of Judge Pearson, found Boyd, BADGER, Ball, BOYDEN and others whose names he did not learn. He could not designate Mr. Boyden, but described to us an old man of seventy, who had shrunk like a blackberry after ten days drying. He said the old man was rude in his examination, and talked in a dictatorial manner as if he had power to force things.

When Mr. Fogleman went into the room Boyd went out. He scraped his foot as a signal to Rotating Richard, who did not take the signal. Then Boyd hawked—Richard looked, Boyd beckoned him with his hand and Richard rotated into the Rotunda, talked with Boyd and returned.

Mr. Boyden asked Mr. Fogleman to take his seat in front of the inquisitors and the witnesses, and then desired him to tell all he knew about Ku Klux. Mr. Fogleman asked if Judge Pearson was present.—Badger or Boyden replied No. Fogleman then remarked that he had been summoned to appear before Judge Pearson to give evidence in behalf of the State, against Adolphus G. Moore, and that he would not submit to any private examination—that he would answer to Judge Pearson alone.

This seemed to non-plus the inquisitors and the room was cleared of all other witnesses, lest they should learn their rights from Fogleman.

After the room was cleared, Mr. Boyden, assuming a very serious and threatening attitude, asked Fogleman if he refused to go through a private examination. Fogleman replied, I am a law-abiding man. If I am legally bound to submit to it, I will do so, not otherwise.

Ball, the hypocritical lackey, in the interim, had given Fogleman a very pious admonition about telling the truth and the whole truth.

As Boyden could not convince Fogleman that it was his duty to submit to a private inquisition before them, Fogleman told them he should answer to His Honor in the morning, and bade them good night.

Is not this a pretty business for men claiming position as members of the bar. Nothing but disgrace awaits the inquisitors in the Wiley case, and they are not likely to help it any in their Ku Klux investigations.

THE SWINDLER.

The Washington Chronicle says: "At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Union League, held at Long Branch, a few days since, Gen. Littlefield stated substantially, in his remarks on the dangers which threatened the lives and property of loyal men in the South, that Republicans were at the present time, by no means safe from outrage and persecution in Florida. Several of the Democratic papers of that State have indulged in rather severe comments on Gen. Littlefield and have promptly denied the truth of his assertion. Gen. Littlefield was well advised, and facts bear him out," &c., &c.

The Chronicle cannot be ignorant of the fact that his friend, General Littlefield, is a first class rascal and swindler. That he has been presented by the grand juries both of Florida and North Carolina for fraudulent and corrupt transactions, and since presiding at Long Branch over the Union League and associating with President Grant at that fashionable retreat, he has sneaked or fled to Europe, it is supposed with Florida and North Carolina Bonds to trade upon. The checks he gave to Mr. John W. Woodfin and others on the eve of sailing were protested. Mr. Woodfin followed the rascal the next day. If Littlefield has the confidence of any man in Florida or North Carolina except Gov. Read and Gov. Holden, we are not advised of it. He is said to have paid a part of the money used in bribing Governor Read. He is or was the partner of Gov. Holden in the Standard office. The Governor made him State Printer, binder, and President of a Railroad.

Littlefield is a known swindler, and President of a Railroad in Florida as well as North Carolina. The Chronicle should not parade such a villain in its columns or give credence to what he says. Give us honesty as well as "peace."

"SOUR GRAPES."—The next General Assembly will discharge the Code Commission. Judge Pearson declines to accept of Vic. Barringer's place on the Commission after 1st September next.

The Mecklenburg Agricultural Association will hold a fair in Charlotte sometime this Fall. The time will shortly be definitely fixed by the Executive Committee.

Gov. Vance will address the people of Mecklenburg county on the subject of Agriculture, in Charlotte on the 8th of next month.

BENCH WARRANT CASES BEFORE JUDGE PEARSON.

THE ALAMANCE BENCH WARRANT CASE.

TUESDAY MORNING, Aug. 30.

The Court sat at 9 o'clock, A. M.

John W. Long was recalled on the cross examination of yesterday.

The whipping of Caswell Holt was said to be for obscurely exposing his person to a white girl; never heard what the charges against Trollinger were; Sandy Sellars was charged with insulting a white woman about not keeping her hogs off his wheat. Neither of them was whipped about voting. We once made a riding raid, some rode and some walked; went through Graham and fired into some negroes' houses.

Joe Harvey was whipped by George Anthony's camp; he and Wm. Coffey had a quarrel about dividing corn. When they went to Joe Harvey's it was said they frightened his wife so that she let her child fall out of her lap, and it died three days after.

They were looking for Daniel Crutchfield when Trollinger was whipped.

The cypher used by the camps was a transposition of the Alphabet, beginning at L for A, and going through, returning to L. The notice for meeting at night was a half moon, with one figure above and one below the cresent, the two being added together to designate the hour; the day meetings made known by a cross with figures used in the same way. (Witness did not say how the place of meeting was made known.)

The oath is considered binding by the order; they appeal to God in taking it; when the chief is not present it is administered by any other member.

FOR THE DEFENCE.

Dr. John A. Moore and Green Andrews were called and sworn.

Green Andrews examined. Has lived in Alamance 20 years, has known Long from infancy, knows his character; it is pretty bad; bad for truth and honesty—he is looked upon as a thief and liar. I belonged to the "organization," joined in 1868, was in only once; took an oath, nothing in it requiring disobedience to law; didn't like some things heard of the members doing and didn't go in any more, think the oath required to support the Constitution of the State and of the United States; nothing in the oath requiring me to swear falsely in Court, if there had been would not have taken it.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Have had no difficulty with Long except that I arrested him and he blamed me for it; that was about the last of the past June, before the troops came. Know nothing of the letter sent to Badham; there was no gathering of the parties who carried it, at my house. Warned my sons against having anything to do with the whippings—don't know that any of them belonged to the organization—think it probable three of them did. When I joined I understood the organization was called Ku Klux, never heard the name "White Brotherhood;" never had any disguise. I understood that it was a political organization in opposition to the Leagues; joined it as such. Heard of the whippings, believed they took place. Never understood that the oath bound me to obey orders of the camp; it bound to secrecy; never received any orders. Heard of the whipping of Corliss, but knew nothing of it; heard of the hanging of Outlaw; was told of it by Sandy Green, about 8 o'clock Sunday morning; there was considerable talk about it; don't remember who talked about it; don't know who hung Outlaw; nor who whipped the others in the county. Don't know anything of the burning of the school house nor the drowning of Puryear, except as it was talked of in the neighborhood. Heard there were Leagues, joined the Ku Klux in opposition to them; the Leagues were understood to be composed of some whites, but mostly blacks; they were charged with rapes and barn burnings; believe there were Leagues; believe the Leagues combined to burn barns and commit other crimes; they were understood to be a secret oath bound association, and would stand by each other; this was the general impression; don't know that they committed crimes by order of their meetings; believe they would stand by each other.

John A. Moore. Am a physician; reside at Company Shops; been there ten years; known John W. Long all that time, know his character, it is not good in that neighborhood; it is bad for truth and honesty. Joined the order known as the White Brotherhood; received only a part of the obligation on the night of joining, which was in a shoe shop in the village; was to be at a meeting the next week in the woods and get the balance of the obligation and the signs; forgot the meeting and was sent for; arrived at the meeting just as it was breaking up; Dr. Tarpley went with me that night; the meeting was in the woods near Whitsetts; there was nothing done after we arrived; this was early in 1869; think in January. Am positive nothing was said about Caswell Holt that night after Dr. Tarpley and myself arrived; we were together all the time and returned to the Shops together. Don't know the character of the organization; understood it to be to strengthen the Conservative party; never conversed with any one on the subject; didn't know there were 25 members in the County; never received the balance of the obligation nor the signs. The Leagues were known to exist in the county; were composed of whites and blacks, mostly blacks; they were understood to be a political organization for carrying the elections; the other organization had the same object, and intended to counteract the leagues.

CROSS EXAMINED.

On the 6th or 8th of January last, while in Graham, I met James Boyd on the street who said he wished to speak with me; he told me they were going to "suspend Shoffner's writ of habeas corpus" that night. I told him it would not do, it would bring ruin on the county, and that it must be stopped, and asked him where the men engaged in it could be seen. He told me they would pass Gilbreaths bridge, about seven miles from Graham, at a certain time. I went to the bridge that night about the time he indicated, and in a lane near the bridge met six or eight men. After hailing them I told them what I understood to be their purpose and begged them to desist; one of the men said, "I have rode 40 miles to do the business and I want to see it through." I then told them that Shoffner was in Greensboro' and that his wife was in a delicate situation, and then one of them said, it is no use to go any further. It was dark and they were strangers to me and I did not know them; they were not disguised, and I did not observe that they had any disguises along; did not attempt to find out who they were because I did not know what the damage would be to myself, as I had no means of making myself known to them. They might be coming either from Chatham or Orange; 40 miles from where they were in any direction would have taken them out of Alamance county. Have no belief as to who they were; they were white; recognized no voice. Might have known some of them if it had been day, can't say; was restrained from trying to find out who they were from motives of fear; one of the men said, if you fool us we will call on you about it. Don't know of any Ku Klux in any other county; (witness mentions some dozen names he knew as belonging to the organization.) Believe there were about 300 in Alamance; speaks only on hearsay; don't believe the organization was general in the State; heard there were some in Guilford, also in Orange and Chatham; not more that he knew of, during the campaign.

On the night Corliss was whipped, heard an alarm, got up and looked out, saw something white; there was a general alarm; it was about midnight; put on my clothes and went up to Gresson's, they were then out of sight; Corliss came back in about half an hour—Corliss was said to be from New Jersey.

CROSS EXAMINED.

There has been no effort to prevent my making further disclosures than those I made in my published card; one man from Caswell who was drunk, seemed to treat me coolly—have said that some seemed cool. (An article published in the SENTINEL of Dec. 27th, 1869, was then read.) Witness, said, I wrote the article. I first disclosed my connection with the organization during the late campaign.—There were none but friendly relations between myself and Shoffner; each of us was Master of a Masonic Lodge; this was one motive for my stopping the Ku Klux, but not the strongest one.

RE DIRECT.

Understood that Corliss was whipped for endeavoring to induce the congregation of the colored church at Company Shops to go and take seats in the white church. The whites had given up their church to the colored people and built another for themselves and Corliss told the colored people if they would go to the new white church, he would see that they had seats. Learned these facts from leading colored men at the Shops. Don't think Corliss was whipped for teaching a colored school; he had taught a colored school two sessions and was never interrupted.

Heard that Cas Holt was whipped for exposing his person to a white woman. Believes that much of the crime in the county was committed by persons in the name of the Ku Klux or the Leagues, the perpetrators not belonging to either; three or four negroes have been convicted in the county for going disguised under the name of Ku Klux and whipping other negroes. Believe that crimes have been devised and executed by order of the Leagues; knows that some negroes who were getting staves for Wm. H. Moore, and who did not intend to go to the election, were visited by order of the league and ordered to go, under penalty, and they went.

The testimony here closed, and the counsel for the defence stated that as "probable cause" had been shown, no resistance to binding over would be made.

The Court took recess till 2, P. M.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON Aug. 30.

State vs. Thomas W. Gray for burning a school house at Company Shops.

Peter Hughes and John W. Long, called and sworn as witnesses.

John W. Long examined. There was a framed school house near Dr. Moore's; Mr. Meders, a northern man, had taught a white school there; he also taught negroes there at night. John T. Trollinger and Thomas Gray told me one day they wanted me to come that night and bring Wm. Kirkpatrick with me. I went home and got supper and then went by for Kirkpatrick, but he said he did not want to go, and I went on. I stayed at Trollinger's till after the 10 o'clock train came and left; in about half an hour, Trollinger said, let us do our work. Gray took a jar of kerosene and a syringe and wrapped them up in an old canvass bag; he told me I must never tell what we were going to do; we went on to the school house and sat on the fence for half an hour; I said, we had better not burn the house; but he said he would. I got on a low fence near the house and sat there while he took the syringe and squirted the kerosene under the doors and windows, and then poured the balance on the bag and laid it in the piazza; I again begged him not to fire it, but he lit a match and set the bag a fire, and we ran and went back to Trollinger's and laid down. Soon there was a cry of fire and everybody was up and went to the fire; we got up and went with the others and helped throw the fence away from the burning house. This was in March or April, 1869.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Don't know that the house was burned by order of the camp; think it was an order from the Chief; don't know if it were the order of any other than Trollinger; he said it was an order from the Chief of the county.

Q. Did you not say yesterday that one camp decreed what was to be done and another executed?

Ans. I did, but I didn't say anything about burning school houses; the burning might be done by the same camp. Don't know the motive for burning this school house; there was a negro school taught at the Shops; don't know how long it was taught, think over six months; think this house was burnt because it was used as a negro school house; an attempt had been made to burn the other and it was afterwards guarded. I participated because I was forced—don't know why Kirkpatrick was not as much obliged as I was; I got the order from Trollinger. (Much of the evidence here was explanatory of his connection with the organization, and about what he had stated before.)

I knew it was wrong, but did not think much about whether it was or not; I was forced to take the oath; a man's name would be carried in; the person who took it in would get him in the camp, and then he would be told to hold up his right hand to take the oath, and if he refused he would never get away from there. When I went to help whip, didn't think it very wrong or very right. I didn't tell the Governor nor the Chief Justice because I didn't know they cared; never heard anything of the Governor's proclamation; I didn't tell about these things then but I mean to tell them now or die. Am positive about the members swearing to obey the orders of the Chiefs, whether for burning, hanging, whipping, swearing falsely for each other, getting on juries to clear each other or anything else, and if they refuse the penalty was death; if he stuck to his oath he was obliged to do these things. (Think he can get copy of the oath and Constitution.) The oath bound to secrecy, and not to tell who initiated any one; the organization was for political purposes, to overthrow the Republican party, and this was to be accomplished by hanging, burning, whipping, which all were bound to do if they stuck to their oath. Don't know how far the organization extended; Andrew Johnson was said to be the head of it. I did not tell Jeff Younger that I burned the school house and put it on Gray; never had any fuss with Gray about any boots, have paid him for my boots; never had any fuss with Gray until after Burgin came.

Peter Hughes examined. Knows nothing of the principles of the organization except as informed by J. W. Long; Long told me the house was burned and that it was done by Gray; I abused him for having anything to do with it, as being too daring a thing; he said Gray had a hand in it. About two months after that, about Dec. 1869, met Gray on the Railroad and spoke to him about burning the school house and he said it was done by order of the camp, or he thought it was. I did not belong to any camp, never was initiated, but worked with Atwood's camp in Guilford.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Know Long well; known him three years. (To a question as to his character, witness stated that he and Long were brothers-in-law, and the question was not pressed.) Had heard there were twelve or fifteen hundred of the organization in Guilford; that two-thirds of the people of Rockingham belonged to it; didn't know of his own knowledge; had seen a man named Randall and one named Thompson from Rockingham, who said they belonged to it; supposed two-thirds of the people of Alamance belonged to the organization.—Long told me the secrets of the organization; was never initiated, (describes the signs) thinks they have "died out" principally, don't think it has existed much since the Presidential election. Has not conversed with Long about the Ku Klux since he moved to Alamance; moved there last December; conversed with him about them before he moved there.

(The Chief Justice here stated that the witness was unfairly pressed and he would not suffer it.)

The testimony for the prosecution here closed; no testimony for the defense was introduced.

The next case taken up was that of the State vs. Wm. Murphy Andrews, Walter Tharington, Wm. Redding, Wm. Fogleman, Emsley Fogleman, Ruffin Fogleman, George Toler and John T. Trollinger, for going disguised and whipping Nathan Trollinger, in February 1869.

John W. Long sworn and examined.—Was not with the crowd that whipped Nathan Trollinger; Wm. Andrews, Wm. Fogleman, Ruffin Fogleman, John T. Trollinger and George Toler told me they whipped him; they told me Walter Tharington was there. They said they took him out and whipped him and then forced him to torture himself. (We forbear giving the description as described by witness.) This was in February 1869; they did not tell me whether he was tied to a tree or not.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Two of the parties named told me about it at Trollinger's and the others at a fish trap at Sellar's mill; never heard Thorington say anything about it; they said they whipped him to make him tell where Daniel Crutchfield was.

The testimony in this case here closed.

State vs. Wm. Andrews, Ruffin Andrews, R. M. Stockard, Wm. Kirkpatrick and Jno. Andrews, for conspiracy, going disguised and whipping Sandy Sellars, in Jan. 1869.

John W. Long and Sandy Sellars sworn.

Sandy Sellars examined and testified; 'twas a little after midnight, sometime between Christmas and Spring of the year, when they came to my house; broke down the door and took me off to the woods—some twenty of them—told me to take off my shirt, and as my not complying they tore it off; tied me up and each one gave me one lick around, all the time making a noise like screech owls and poking their horns at me. Then they put a rope around my neck and pulled me up so that my heels were off the ground; then let me down and tied me again and gave me one lick apiece all round again. They asked me if I would ever order another widow woman to take her hogs off my wheat, and told me, if I ever told they would come back and kill me. They whipped me with hickories and a leather strap.

No cross examination.

J. W. Long examined. Myself, Ruffin Andrews, the three Fogleman's George Stockard and others, sixteen in all, went to whip Sandy Sellars; gave him two licks apiece. He was hung up by a leather strap. He was whipped for the charge of cursing Margaret Hardin, a white woman, because she let her hogs run on his wheat, and for wanting to sleep with her or making infamous proposals to her, some time before; know nothing of the truth of the charge. No one but George Tolar talked to him about the charges against him; hung him up to make him confess the charge; he did not confess.—After the whipping his back was rubbed with a persimmon stick across the gashes.

Sellars recalled. Had never cursed Margaret Hardin; never had any fuss with her; asked her to keep her hogs off the wheat and she said she wouldn't; don't remember anything about their rubbing his back with the persimmon stick; didn't beg them to let me alone.

The Court then adjourned to 9 o'clock to morrow morning.

SMALL FARMS.

One of the great mistakes many of our farmers make is the planting of too much land. A farmer's capital is his skilled labor and his money. If he has little of the latter he should have no more land than he can thoroughly well manage by his own personal labor. Every acre beyond that is an incumbrance. Well tested experience has demonstrated that one acre well worked is more profitable than twenty acres skimmed over. It is this greed of land by farmers that keeps so many poor. Small farms are better than large ones because they are better suited to the average capital of common farmers. Of course where a man has a large capital he is able to manage a large farm. Without the capital he would make more money off a small one. Two or three hundred acres of land in the possession of a man who has only enough capital to stock and develope ten acres, leads to one of two things—either that he pays taxes on the balance which he does not use, or, as is more commonly the case, that he spreads his small capital out over the whole; and, in the language of a practical farmer, "that is so thin that it is like a spoonful of guano on the Grand Prairie." There never should be too much disproportion between a man's farm and his capital. A small farm well tilled is more profitable than a large one neglected.

AN ICE CAVERN.—In that wonderful little poetic fragment "Kubla Khan," which Coleridge declared that he dreamed, we read of "that sunny dome! those caves of ice!" They have discovered the equal of Kubla's caves in Winneskeik County, Iowa. The workmen upon a road there accidently opened a cave, from which there was at once a blast of cold air, and so cold was it at the mouth of the cavern, that ice formed wherever moisture gathered. With such a nice place for a cell as this, one might be tempted in the dog days to turn anchorite, and to pass the remainder of one's life in a state of beatific refrigeration.

THE DIFFERENCE.—John Pool, United States Senator, from North Carolina, and arch fomenter of the recent troubles in that unfortunate State, was in the city some weeks ago, and we have yet to learn that any gentleman, either from Virginia or North Carolina, called upon him or in any way recognized his presence. On Saturday evening Hon. G. W. Brooks United States District Judge, and in a great measure the Liberator of the State, arrived in the city, and he has since been called upon by a large number of our citizens, embracing nearly all who owed their birth to the old North State. This little circumstance shows the relative standing of the two men.—Norfork Virginian.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Alsop & Co., Newbern, with its improvements

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should here remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and freq ient handling of the lint. It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet—Size Bale 4½ feet. 22x32 inches; wt. Bale 400 to 500 lbs.

THOS. H. BROOS, Esq: Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction. Respectfully yours, CHAS. H. BLOCKER.

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 23rd, 1870.

THOS. H. BROOS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen. Respectfully, W. H. PUGH.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BROOS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen as that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds. Yours truly, W. T. BOWLS.

ARROW TIES!

FOR BALING COTTON.

250 TONS, 60 Bundles, 56 lbs. each, and containing 30 Ties and Buckles, now in Store.

IMPORTED DIRECT FROM LIVERPOOL.

WE OFFER TO THE FARMERS AND MERCHANTS OF THE STATE THE ABOVE TIES which are now so universally known and approved throughout the Cotton States, as the Neatest, Strongest and Most Easily and Quickly Applied of any Tie Known in the Market.

The fastenings, as well as the bands, are of the best ENGLISH WROUGHT IRON, and experience has shown that they do not break, as many of the CAST IRON fastenings of other Ties do, thereby saving much expense in rope, labor and mending Cotton at the shipping port.

☞ Prices as low or lower than GOOD TIES can be bought at in any market on the Coast. ☜

☞ Liberal Arrangements made with Merchants and Dealers. ☜

CLUBS.—We are obliged to our friends, Messrs. Means & Means, Concord, N. C.; H. W. Connor, Scattlesford, N. C.; P. C. Randolph, Halifax, N. C.; L. Hussey, Newton, N. C.; W. L. Kitchen, Scotland Neck, N. C. and J. W. Crowell, Marlboro', Pitt county, for clubs of subscribers to the SENTINEL, for which they will please accept our thanks.

EDGECOMBE.—Edgecombe was behind in voting, but somebody else must upbraid her; for she is first in agriculture and ahead in sending new subscribers for the SENTINEL since the election. We thank our friends all, and especially H. C. Bourne, who sent us two lists of fifty each, with the cash.

REMEMBRANCES.—We are greatly indebted to the ladies for presents of fine fruit—pears, apples, peaches, figs, &c.—Their kindness will not be forgotten.

The Captain of the "Democratic Union," Rotating Dick Badger, who was so active in forming secret political associations some time ago, is said to be a very proper person to find out the material of other similar associations of the so-called Ku Klux, upon the principle that we set a rogue to catch a rogue.

CORRECTION.—In our notice yesterday of troops who were put in the guard house, one night last week, the types made us say the Mayor had the gag put back, whereas, it should have been the Major; simply the misprint of one letter. Mayor Harrison had nothing to do with the matter, and we know he did not approve of it.

PERSONAL.—We notice as guests at the Yarborough House to-day Gen. Robert Ransom, Hon. J. B. Shepard, (just arrived from Paris) Col. N. M. Long, Dr. E. A. Crudup and Capt Geo. B. Bullock.

MAP OF THE SEAT OF WAR.—We are indebted to Capt. W. H. Crow, General Agent in this State and Southern Virginia, for the Ætna Life Insurance Company, for a neat pocket map of the seat of war in Europe, appropriately accompanied by sixteen logical reasons for insuring one's life.

UNION LEAGUES, &c.—The most active Ku Klux organizations ever formed in North Carolina, was the Union League and the Heroes of America. Gov. Holden was the Head of the former, as can be proved by Charley Horner, and Windy Billy Henderson, the King of the latter. Put them both on the stand.

"PROBABLE CAUSE."—In a dispatch to the press, L. P. Olds, who still calls himself Attorney General of North Carolina, states that Wiley, Mitchell and Roan were held to bail by the justices for $5000 on the charge of murder, holding that the evidence disclosed a case of probable cause. If Olds had delivered such an opinion himself, the public would have taken it as evidence that the Judge was non compos mentis, but in the case of the three Judges, the judgment of the public is, that the opinion originated in malice preparse et obitur dictum Holdenum.

All the Republican Congressional candidates in South Carolina are black, for the simple reason that no respectable white man could be found in the Radical party in that State.

According to law, the Council of State will meet in the Executive office on to-morrow for the purpose of comparing the vote for Attorney General.

Why is it? Ice sells in Newbern at 3 cents per pound, in Wilmington at 2 cents and in Raleigh at 7 cents per pound.

The Wilmington Journal in alluding to the desire of the Newbern Journal of Commerce to tender Clark-ee and his braves a dinner on their return from their brilliant campaign, suggests as refreshments pickled cod fish, music—Rogue's march.

A colored man named Jacob French, alias David French, was examined before Justice McQuigg in Wilmington on Saturday, charged with having committed a rape upon the person of a little colored girl, about 13 years of age, sometime last May. The evidence was so strong against the accused that he was committed to jail to await a trial at the next term of the Court.

On Saturday morning Mr. Cromwell, who resides about 8 miles from Wilmington, on going into his cattle lot found a box lying in a cart containing a young stranger in the shape of a white female infant. Mr. C. being an unmarried man and not having his house furnished to entertain such company turned the young lady over to the custody of one of his neighbors until the authorities can take the proper steps.

ATTENTION.—Members of Mechanics' Fire Company are notified to attend a regular meeting, at Fireman's Hall, on Thursday evening, Sept. 1st, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

By order of the Foreman,

H. C. HARRIS, Sec'y.

THREE persons from North Carolina were arrested at Wytheville, Va., on Monday, by the U. S. Marshal, for selling tobacco with counterfeit stamps upon it.

AN attempt was made by incendiaries, to fire the residence of Mr. Joseph A. Bell of Newbern, on Saturday night. By strenuous efforts the property was saved, but in a badly damaged condition.

THE READY WITNESS

Pearson, Settle, Dick Reid man Boyden and Rotating Dick, have not been so well pleased in an age, as since they met with that accommodating witness John W. Long, the hog man from Alamance.

Mr. Battle, of counsel for defendants, was yesterday putting witness considerably to the route to cover his tracks when the Standard says:

"The Chief Justice here put a stop to the examination of the witness by Mr. R. H. Battle."

Long, no doubt, needed the interference of the Chief Justice to prevent his shameless exposure; but by what authority did the Judge interfere? He knows that every respectable man in Alamance, would declare that Long cannot be believed, and yet when he needs bolstering, the Standard tells us Judge Pearson does it.

This is not the first time we have heard of such conduct on the part of the Judge pending these investigations.

ADOLPHUS G. MOORE.

After five weeks imprisonment and final release upon a writ of habeas corpus, this gentleman was arrested upon a State's warrant, at the instance and upon the oath of Kirk. He was charged with subverting the State government, and murdering Outlaw. That charge was abandoned and he was then failed to answer to the charge of having been disguised. This is the 12th day that he has been on attendance of Judge Pearson to answer the State's warrant. Mr. Moore is now told by counsel to go home and he shall be telegraphed for when wanted. Mr. Moore should remain and insist on a trial. He should take Kirk with a bench warrant for perjury, and if the Governor procured Kirk to make the oath, the Governor should be arrested for subornation of perjury. Mr. Moore has been badly used as a prisoner. Capt. Franklin drew a pistol on him. We saw the same man throw a huge rock at him while he stood in his prison window. We should not be surprised if Kirk's counsel have made themselves liable and answerable to the law for Kirk's false swearing against Mr. Moore. If you have gentlemen look out, for Mr. Moore has none of the mettle of Jim Boyd.

BAILEY, BADGER, DOUGLAS AND LONG.

These gentlemen yesterday visited Watson's Photograph Gallery to have the latter taken in his Ku Klux disguise. Long is the perjured witness for Holden, Kirk & Co. We suggested to Mr. Watson that Long should have been taken with a hog and a sack of flour on his back.

Long is a shabby sheat and was charged on a State's warrant with stealing flour from a negro. Judge Pearson having hung for a time the writ of habeas corpus, we fear he will be in a state of mind to believe all that Long may swear. By the way, Long's daguerrotype will be incomplete in Ku Klux attire, unless Holden, Pearson, Dick, Settle, Badger, Boyden, Douglas and Boyd are in group with their hair on end, running as if the d—l's after them.

MORE OUTRAGES BY "KIRK'S STATE TROOPS."

Editor of the Sentinel:

DEAR SIR. Your readers and the public must know what is going on in Alamance. Kirk's men are behaving badly, and when he is asked by the injured parties for protection replies, that he could not control his men. No longer than Saturday last a squad of them stacked their arms and swore they would not obey him, and I understand about twenty left camp last Saturday night. A short time since they visited Mrs. Maria Foust (a widow lady about seventy years of age) living near Graham with only two daughters for her protection, stacked their guns in her house, then washed them out and emptied the contents on the floor, and whenasked not to do so said they would do as they pleased. Yesterday (Sunday) she was visited again by a band of them; after giving them what fruit they wanted they pulled her corn, and when remonstrated with by the old lady, they fired their guns off, frightening her and her daughters very much. Also on last Saturday about sun down one of "Kirks Lambs" was caught with Mr. Daniel Holt's horse in his possession trying to escape. Mr. Holt at once made complaint to Kirk and asked to be protected, but got no relief, for on the following night they set fire to one of Mr. Holt's houses inside of his yard and then threw rocks in at his windows where his wife and children were sleeping. Mr. Holt being at the barn guarding his horses, the house had fairly caught and but for its being discovered about the time it started, Mr. Holt's home would have gone with it.

I want the people of the State to know how they are under the eyes of every officer belonging to the regiment. They are camped in the heart of Graham, near the Court House, and many of them don't hesitate to don their entire dress within a few steps of main street and private dwellings. I ask in the name of the insulted people of Alamance, if we can claim no protection from the State authorities?

Yours truly,

ALAMANCE.

For the Sentinel.

JUDGE GILLIAM.

I noticed in a recent SENTINEL that several gentlemen had been spoken of in connection with the U. S. Senate. I take leave to suggest the name of Hon. R. B. Gilliam, who has been elected in place of Dawes expelled, to represent the Metropolitan District in Congress, until next March. Judge Gilliam's character for ability, integrity, honesty, amiability and wisdom is well known in central Carolina, and especially in Wake and counties adjacent. No man ever won a better opinion for courtesy, industry, fairness and justice than he did when upon the bench, and no man has won whatever honor he has received from the people more worthily or with less ostentation and obtrusive pride. He will make a capital Senator to represent our people in Congress, if prudence, sagacity, industry, large observation and experience and statesman like qualities can contribute to the formation of such a character.

Judge Gilliam, unlike many of North Carolina's foremost men, has had his political disabilities removed. I happen to know from recent travel, that he is spoken of in other sections and among highly intelligent and patriotic citizens, as the very man to express in the old North State in the Senate of the Nation at this particular period of our history.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Tuesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug 30.—Two hundred recruits have been ordered to Texas.

Preliminary arrangements for a new Democratic paper with ample capital has been completed; the publishing committee meets in November.

It is ordered that after October next that no retired officers shall remain upon active duty.

Ackerman telegraphs the District Attorney of West Virginia referring to suits brought by Confederates who are denied registration, to dismiss all prosecutions under the third section of the act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of this Union, where the offence is not the disfranchisement forbidden in the second section.

COLARADO.

DENVER, Aug 30.—The silver mines forty miles from here are very rich and are creating intense excitement.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug 30.—The Philadelphia Watch Company loses fifty thousand dollars by the flight of the Secretary and Treasurer.

NEW JERSEY.

NEWARK, Aug. 30.—Joseph Kearney, a Professor at Seton Hall College was found dead in a ditch, having been struck by a passing train.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The Telegram has a special from London with advices from Sedan to-day, "fighting along the Railroad between the advance of the German and French armies on the 28th. A correspondent says that not only has McMahon failed to join Bazaine but the two armies are wedged between them. McMahon is separated from Bazaine by two powerful armies. A regiment of Chasseurs d' Afrique routed two regiments of Saxon dragoons near Mouzeour. It is believed here that McMahon perseveres in the effort to reach Metz in spite of the obstacles in his way.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Aug 30.—The Prince Imperial 9th at Sedan Sunday night, where the Emperor was expected. The Uhlans were at the time only nine miles South of the town.

The papers are befogged regarding the positions of the armies. The latest telegrams made "confusion worse confounded."

Every German arrested appeals to the American Minister Washburn for examination. No American has yet been arrested as a Prussian spy. Ten out of every dozen Englishmen are arrested. The Prussians entered Vervaiers on the heels of the retreating French. King William's route to Paris is by the upper Marne and Meuse.

A French frigate repaired her engine at Leswick Scotland, and was notified by the government to leave.

Parisians of all ranks are enrolled for defence.

PARIS, Aug. 30.—Much confusion was caused by the departure of a large number of Germans. The Journals say that this policy will rid Paris of many enemies.

The La Liberte says that the hour for a great battle has arrived. The battle must occur on the valley of Argonne, and perhaps from there to Metz. We have reason to believe that the battle is raging now. If the Prussians are repulsed they must retire behind the Meuselle. France, every moment grows more formidable. Even now new recruits are ready to take the field. Defeat cannot subdue us.

The Opinion Nationale "War to the last, not not one German recross the Rhine for centuries, let Germany remember that an enemy may enter, but cannot leave France."

The Patrie says that military events of the utmost importance are preparing. Whatever may be the result at Paris, France must redouble her energy and create a third and fourth army. The Germans are active and we must use all our efforts. The news from McMahon's army continues excellent. McMahon has never for a moment been deceived about the Crown Royal's movements. Parisians must not, however, cease preparing to repulse the enemy.

The Prince Imperial has gone to Messiers where he will remain until further orders.

Messiers is considered impregnable and contains strong garrison with ample supplies.

Wednesday Evening Dispatches.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—A special to the Courier Des Etats says: McMahon has an effective force of probably two hundred thousand men of the flower of France. Everything is in suspense waiting the issue of the battle in Ardennes or along Mouse. Paris is fully prepared and is filled with patriotism. All her men and youths are ready for arms.

The Prussian army is advancing on Paris by the valleys of Aube and Seine with nothing but the Lanwehier, the rest having turned north.—The peasants along the line are seriously annoying the invaders.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—Paris advices say that McMahon has separated the forces of his opponents and will deliver battle probably to-day with confident hopes of success.

PARIS, Aug. 31—Midnight official. The march of the Prussians on Paris seems to be arrested. McMahon continues his movement. No serious engagement as yet. Chalons has been abandoned by the Prussians. Troops go freely as far as Rheims. Persons coming from Germany on Saturday say that a part of the town has suffered much. The garrison will be supplied. The citizens are determined to resist to the last.

PARIS, Aug 31.—In the corps, in answering an interpellation regarding the Protestants, the Minister of the Interior said he would cause the proclamation in every Commune in France that the first religion now is patriotism.

The Moniteur says, that persons from Mexico affirm that a battle occurred on Saturday, its informants say that the Prussians are retreating.

The Public says that McMahon is entirely free in his movements and has perfect communication with Barzane. To-day both must be doubting. The forced marches of the Crown Prince used up many of his men. Many of the foot sore were transported in carts; thousands were left behind.

Letters from the Departments of Ysone and Aube say that the Prussians are over-running the environs Troyes and Tonnere, cutting railroads and telegraphs.

BERLIN, Aug. 31.—The Prussians are placing heavy size guns before Strasburg.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 31.—Bazaine is still cooped up. The Prussians are ordered to camp as far as possible from the recent battle field on account of the poisonous exhalations.

The Emperor is expected at Corador and the Prince at Avesnes.

CHOLERA.

HOW TO CURE IT.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water; (hot, if convenient) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Asthma, cures in one night by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic. When externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KILLER.

Directions accompany each bottle.

This Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

Prices, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

DISSOLUTION.

RALEIGH N. C., Aug. 22, 1870.

THE Copartnership heretofore existing between Jos. P Galley Z. T. Bynum, and L. J. Galley, under the style name and firm of Galley, Bynum & Co. is this day dissolved by mutual consent. THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum secured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AFRESH; BUT THEY DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with the General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!

WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!

OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and colorless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1869.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 18th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

A. BALDING'S

PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 3 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 30 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. The number of feet in the depth of the well must be given in all cases.

Beaufort Harbor and the Atlantic Ocean!

THE FINEST BATHING, BOATING AND FISHING IN THE WORLD!

THE MACON HOUSE,

Morehead City, N. C.

MESSRS. PEPPER & O'CONNOR, OF RALeigh, N. C., have leased these well-known premises, which are now undergoing thorough repairs and painting, and beg respectfully to announce that the place will be

OPEN FOR THE SUMMER SEASON

ON OR ABOUT

June 1st, 1870.

The premises will be under the sole, immediate control of Mr. W. R. PEPPER, well and favorably known to the frequenters of all the most celebrated summer resorts of this State and Eastern Virginia. His reputation as a caterer will be received as a sure guarantee of the manner in which the MACON HOUSE will be conducted. Everything conducive to the comfort and convenience of visitors will be supplied.

New Bathing Houses,
Boats for Fishing and Excursion Parties,
Fishing Tackle and Bait,
A Cotillion Band
&c., &c., &c.

Nature made Beaufort Harbor second to no surf and deep-water bathing place in the world. It will be the aim of Messrs Pepper & O'Connor to establish this truth. Visitors may rely upon an earnest, honest effort to make their stay pleasant and agreeable.

Arrangements are being made with the Presidents of the several Railroads of the State with a view to at greatly reduced fares. Bathing and Excursion parties for the Banks will be organized and conducted by skilful boatmen and experienced fishermen; also, parties for the celebrated Pony Pennings on the Banks.

Due notice will be given of the Opening Day and Opening Ball.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Polices on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without its exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
